

Plants in Pots or PIP is a sub group of APS Central Coast who meet three times per year to discuss the successes and disappointments of the Australian native plants they are growing in containers.