

APS Coffs Harbour Group 2021 Programme

2020	Tuesday Meetings	Field Trips
JANUARY*		31st January: The Botanists' Walk : a preview of the new garden at the NCRBG to be formally opened later in the year.
FEBRUARY	9 February, 7pm - 10pm Guest: Gwyn Clarke: APS display planning for Spring Festival
MARCH	9 March, 10am – 1.00pm Guest: Ross Macleay: Landcare TBC	28th March: Glenugie Peak. Also known as Gunayjun to local Gumbayggirr people, it is a basalt hill found within the Glenugie State Forest, south east of Grafton. With some interesting flora.
APRIL *	13 April, 7pm - 10pm Guest: Bianca Golding: Bush Regeneration in an Urban Context
MAY	11 May, 10am – 1.00pm Guest: Steve Young/Morrie Duggan
JUNE	8 June, 7pm –10pm Guest: Morrie Duggan/Steve Young	20st June: Station Creek within the Yuraygir National Park , north of Coffs Harbour.
JULY*	13 July, 10am – 1.00pm Guest: Phil O'Shea Some Poisonous Native Plants
AUGUST	10 August, 7pm - 10pm Guest: Andrew Hugget: Up hills and down swales- highlights of NSW north coastal and tableland bird surveying for habitat restoration projects	29th August: Limeburner Creek National Park: a unique area that contains protected littoral rainforest and swampy scrubland. Between Port Macquarie and Crescent Head.
SEPTEMBER	14 September, 10am - 1.00pm Guest: 3 members to talk of favourite plant TBA	26th September: McCabe Garden, Coramba: demonstration of long deep planting
OCTOBER *	12 October, 7pm - 10pm Guest: Lachlan Copeland: TBA	Mid-October: Woolgoolga Spring Festival - display by APS Coffs Harbour.
NOVEMBER	9 November, 10am – 1.00pm AGM: Guest speaker TBA
DECEMBER		End of Year Function Venue, date and time TBA

* Newsletter and Committee meeting